With classic styling, the Leisure Home Suite not only has looks that will last, but due to its seamless sightlines and ease of installation, it is the professionals' choice

Due to the innovation of no screw fittings to the window the time of installation is substantially reduced

This system is cost effective, secure and easy to install with a great deal of 'kerb side appeal'

Founded by Stanley Priest in 1950, Stanway Screens Ltd began life in a 3,000 sq.ft factory in Bredon manufacturing car windscreens and eventually caravan and boat windows

Stanway Screens Ltd is still a family run business, Marcus Priest is the Managing Director and his children (Tristan, Samantha & Duncan) manage the business with him. The company has predominately been in the leisure home market for a majority of the company's history and the future looks more focused than ever in this market
